

Boston Public Schools Fiscal Year 2010 Budget Hearings

“How is the Boston Public Schools annual budget determined?”

“How are funds allocated to each school?”

“What role do parents have in the decision-making process?”

“How can we continue providing high-quality services to our students?”

Boston Public Schools faces the challenge of meeting the educational needs of Boston’s children and families during a time of fewer resources.

The Boston School Committee and Superintendent Carol R. Johnson invite parents, teachers, students, and the community to participate in public discussions about the BPS budget for the 2009-2010 school year.

Thursday, February 5

6:00 – 8:00 P.M.

Blackstone Elementary School
380 Shawmut Avenue
Boston

Tuesday, March 10

6:00 – 8:00 P.M.

English High School
144 McBride Street
Jamaica Plain

Tuesday, February 10

6:00 – 8:00 P.M.

John McCormack Middle School
315 Mt. Vernon Street
Dorchester

Wednesday, March 11

5:00 – 6:00 P.M.

Boston Public Schools Central Office
Edward J. Winter Chambers
26 Court Street, 1st Floor
(prior to School Committee Meeting)

For more information, call the Boston Public Schools Budget Office: (617) 635-9580