Free SAT help for BPS students!

The Boston Public Schools and the Boston Public Library offer a variety of free online resources that students can use to prepare for the SAT exam.

collegeboard.com/quickstart

This website customizes a personal SAT study plan for students, based on their performance on the PSAT/NMSQT exam (taken by BPS students in grades 10 and 11).

FEATURES:

- SAT practice questions
- Individualized skill building lessons
- Test taking strategies for success
- Official SAT exam with score summary
- Links to other college and financial aid resources

Access is free – just sign into the College Board site or use your Access code on the PSAT/NMSQT score results. For more information or questions, see your school's guidance counselor.

myskillstutor.com

This online program personalizes tutorials for students so that they can “brush up” on the academic content covered on the SAT exam.

FEATURES:

- Lessons in critical reading, writing, and mathematics
- Periodic assessments to determine progress
- Opportunities to focus on content deficits

Access can be granted to any student in a BPS high school. Check with your school's guidance counselor to receive password information for this website.

bpl.org/electronic (LearnATest)

Practicing for the SAT doesn't need to be just a school activity! Whether at your local library or at home, this website can help you succeed.

FEATURES:

- Practice SAT exam
- Civil Service, Cosmetology, Police, Firefighter, and EMS exams

Access can be granted using a BPL library card.
