

THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF THE CITY OF BOSTON

MEMORANDUM

TO: School Committee Chair and Members
FROM: Michael Loconto, School Committee Member
SUBJECT: Membership of the School Committee Inclusion Task Force
DATE: October 1, 2014

As the School Committee representative on the Inclusion Task Force, tonight I present for your consideration three new members:

- Marjorie Crosby, occupational therapist, Office of Special Education and Student Services
- Aixa Borrero-Sanchez, supervisor for support services, Office of Special Education and Student Services
- Jacquelyne Sedgwick, certified teacher, special education and regular education, William Ohrenberger School.

If approved, this diverse and talented group will join the Inclusion Task Force, which has been working for the past year to support the district's work expanding inclusive learning opportunities for all students. They will fill positions that have been vacated by the following people:

- Raul Garcia
- Patricia Lampron
- Edward Powell
- Maria Paiewonsky

An updated roster is attached for your reference.

I respectfully request the School Committee's approval this evening, which would enable the new members to fully participate in the October 9th meeting of the Inclusion Task Force. I look forward to answering any questions you may have at tonight's meeting. Thank you.
