Why the Task Force Was Formed

The Achievement Gap is the Underutilization of Human Potential
Part 1: Task Force Charge, Goals, and Composition

The Charge: The Opportunity and Achievement Gaps Task Force is charged with investigating and recommending to the Boston School Committee (BSC) and the Superintendent of Boston Public Schools (BPS) system-wide policies, programs and practices designed to eliminate achievement and opportunity gaps for Boston Public Schools (BPS) students, including potential adjustments, improvements and additions to the existing BPS Achievement Gap Policy and Goals. Thereafter, this Task Force will provide on-going leadership and monitoring, including direction, metrics and support, for the implementation of said policy by the District, with regular reporting to the BSC on actual results.

Thorough Review of the 2006 Achievement Gap Policy

Guiding Principles for our Review

• Do not attempt a 2016 Revision without a thorough understanding of the 2006 Policy. This includes an understanding of goals we should keep, change, and/or consolidate as well as an examination of barriers to implementation and the root causes of the gaps.

• Do not limit our 2016 Revision within the confines of the 2006 Policy. In 10 years much has changed, including a deeper understanding of the impact of the “Opportunity Gap” and shifts in the demographics of BPS and the neighborhoods our schools serve.
Method of Review

1. Took the 12 goals from the 2006 policy and grouped them into 3 Categories.
   - Leadership and School Culture
   - Teaching and Learning
   - District Strategy (i.e. Human Resources, Operations, Evaluation, & Funding)
2. Met in 3 subgroups to review each goal, word for word. Assembled notes and questions, and then reported back to the larger Task Force. In some cases, groups also drafted new language for specific goals.
3. Invited the authors and participants of the 2006 Policy to share and discuss their process, successes, and perceived barriers to implementation. Presenters included George Cox, Suzanna Lee, and Dr. Carroll Blake.
Opportunity Gaps

The Task Force has also begun to examine Opportunity Gaps

1. Examined the 2014 and 2015 Reports on Opportunity and Equity developed by the Center for Collaborative Education and the Annenberg Institute for School Reform. (Note: Several Task Force Members also served on the Advisory Committee for these reports.)

2. Held a conversation with BPS Superintendent Dr. Tommy Chang, to gain his perspective on the District’s Opportunity and Achievement Gap (OAG) agenda, especially as it relates to his Superintendent’s 100 Day Plan, which makes specific mention of the OAG Task Force.
Our Preliminary Findings

The OAG Task Force has identified 5 Preliminary Findings which will guide our work:

- Focus on Implementation
- Set SMART Goals
- Address Underlying Root Causes
- Go Beyond Academics
- Share a Clear and Cohesive Vision
Our Preliminary Findings (cont’d)

Focus on Implementation
Although most goals from the 2006 policy still remain relevant, the policy was never fully implemented. We are developing the 2016 Revision with our eyes set on implementation. This requires careful coordination with district department heads.
Our Preliminary Findings (cont’d)

Set “SMART Goals”

Each goal in the policy needs to be written as a S.M.A.R.T. Goal so that we can measure and determine progress, and ensure accountability.
Address Underlying Root Causes

Even the best-written policy will be undermined if we do not explicitly address cultural and structural factors involved in eliminating opportunity and achievement gaps.

Cultural Factors

Structural Factors
Cultural Factors

- Acknowledge the impact of entrenched and institutional racism and poverty, and explicitly address it
- Fully understand cultural proficiency and cultural relevance vs just cultural competence
Structural Factors

- Examine policies, practices and procedures at Central Office
  How are BPS departments actively involved in eliminating (or widening) opportunity and achievement gaps?
- Avoid the trap of bureaucracy and dysfunction
  How does a shift in policy flow from Central Office to School Leaders to Classroom Teachers on the front line
- Break down silos by focusing on a Culture of We
- Identify Resources needed for sustainability
Our Preliminary Findings (cont’d)

Go Beyond Academics

School Based Efforts
Social and Emotional Learning
Trauma-Informed Approaches
K-12 Strand on Race, Culture, Language and Identity
School Discipline Policies and Classroom Management
Student and Family Engagement
School Culture and Climate

Also City-Wide Efforts
Share a Clear, Consistent, and Cohesive Vision

- It’s time for a district-wide change in beliefs, attitudes, expectations, and behaviors at all levels in the Boston Public Schools
- Develop shared definitions
- Reframe the conversation – moving from “eliminating gaps” to “promoting Excellence with Equity”

Draft Revised 2016 Policy in Tandem with BPS Personnel Responsible for Implementation

- Working closely with Dr. Colin Rose, the Task Force will meet with individual Department Heads in January/February, receiving their continuous input and feedback as we craft the revised policy
- Importance of Ownership versus Buy-In
Dr. Colin Rose: Role in the Work

Address structural and cultural barriers and promote culturally sustaining policies and practices for traditionally marginalized students in BPS to help eliminate achievement gaps and prepare students for a democratic, pluralistic society.

- District Level: Collaborating with all departments in the theory of targeted universalism.
  - Involvement of other leadership bodies (e.g. city government, universities, etc.)
  - Use UDL framework- explicitly pushed to areas of race, culture, and language.

- School Level: Sustainable practices of cultural proficiency
  - Both classroom and school structures/practices
  - Instruments/measurement for feedback and accountability
Meet with National Advisors

- Dr. John Jackson, President and Chief Executive Officer, The Schott Foundation for Public Education
- Dr. Pedro Noguera, Distinguished Professor of Education, UCLA
Draft Revised Policy After Vetting with Department Heads
The revised policy will reflect the buy-in of all those who are expected to implement it, and will include actionable SMART goals

Boston School Committee Votes on Revised Policy (Spring 2016)

OAG Task Force Continues as a Monitoring Body
School Committee Implementation

- According to the 2006 Achievement Gap Policy Implementation Plan, “Every educational policy creation or review will happen with a lens of closing the Achievement Gap and providing Equity and Access to all students and families.”
- Fully utilize list of “Key Questions to Address in all School Committee Presentations”
Resources Still Needed

- Hire Task Force Facilitator
- Identify rep from the Inclusion Task Force to serve as a liaison and participate in future OAG Task Force Meetings
