

Summer Stuff 2017

FOR MIDDLE SCHOOL AND HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS IN THE BOSTON PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Good old summertime...

Sure, it's winter now... but summer is on the way, and the time to make your summer plans is NOW. Will you be looking for a job? Many of the best ones have early application deadlines. What about a high-quality academic program, internship or volunteer program? You may need to write an essay and get letters of recommendation from a teacher or adult mentor, and that can take time. There are a lot of great things to do in and around Boston. You could get a job, take dancing lessons, learn to sail or play golf, act in a play, volunteer at a museum or homeless shelter, plan for college, intern in a science lab or on a farm, and go to free concerts and films. (You could even work on your math skills...)

Need ideas? Summer Stuff 2017 is full of good ideas. (We've even thrown in some ideas for this spring and next school year.) Read it through, circle the ones that interest you, then visit their websites or call. They're waiting to hear from you. Most of these programs can be found at PartnerBPS.org. Use the search engine to find exactly what you want. Next, apply—now. In many cases, you can apply online or print an application from the website. Don't be put off by the cost of some programs. Many have scholarships, and they are looking for Boston students. In fact, some programs are only for students who go to the Boston Public Schools. Good luck—and have a great summer!

Boston Public Schools' 5th Quarter District Summer Learning Programs

Did you know that students who attend summer learning programs can have an advantage going into the next school year? BPS has many summer programs targeted to all kinds of learners. All programs are free—but only eligible students may attend. To find out if your child is eligible for one of these programs, ask his or her principal, guidance counselor or teacher.

SUMMER LEARNING ACADEMIES PRE-K-GRADE 12 ★

A partnership among BPS schools and community based organizations to deliver academics, skill development, and enrichment to high-need students. Each program employs a different mix of time, location, and activities based on the specific needs and interests of their students - all are full day, 4-6 week programs that require students to attend every day. These programs are designed to prepare students for the upcoming school year and will count for credit for students who require it. Talk to your child's principal or teacher or visit www.bostonpublicschools.org/summer to find out what programs may be available to your child.

SUMMER SESSION GRADES 9-12 ★

If you are a current BPS Student in grades 9-12 and:

- Have not had more than 30 absences this year
- Need to make up credits or want to get ahead

Then you can attend SUMMER SESSION! Students can make up credits for graduation in all the major courses offered in ELA, Math, Social Studies, and Science AND/OR sign up for acceleration credits in several elective areas in order to get ahead! Students may take up to two courses.

Program Sites: Charlestown High School, East Boston High School, Snowden International School, O'Bryant School of Math & Science, Brighton High School, Burke High School, TechBoston Academy (Physical Location TBD)

EXTENDED SCHOOL YEAR (ESY)★

The Office of Special Education and Student Services (OSESS) will implement the Extended School Year program, a special education service for students between the ages of 3-22 with disabilities whose unique needs require special education in excess of the regular academic school year. Students receiving ESY services will be identified by his/her IEP team and will be invited by OSESS to participate in programming. Contact your student's teacher, Special Education Coordinator, principal or guidance counselor for more information.

SUMMER ARTS INTENSIVES ★

Register today for free summer programs in music (concert band & orchestra), dance, theatre and spoken word. Beginning in July, students of all experience levels will spend 2 weeks developing skills, performing with peers and connecting with professionals in the arts. All programs culminate in closing performances the final week. Breakfast and lunch are provided. Open to students enrolled in BPS schools only. See descriptions below for grade levels and details.

SUMMER SYMPHONY: CONCERT BAND & ORCHESTRA

Start the school year ahead of the pack! Beginning and intermediate woodwind, brass, percussion and string students are invited to spend the summer strengthening their skills through fun repertoire. Play in large and small ensembles, participate in music theory workshops, and work with top Boston musicians. Partners include Castle of Our Skins Chamber Ensemble, the Boston City-Wide String Orchestra and more! Open to students currently in grades 4-11.

SUMMER STAGE: DANCE, SPOKEN WORD & THEATRE

Dancers, poets and actors of all backgrounds, experience and abilities are invited to join us for Summer Stage! Our dance intensive (currently in grades 4-11) includes body conditioning and choreography designed to bring out the best in everyone. Through our spoken word intensive (grades 7-11), students create and perform original poetry under the guidance of award-winning spoken word artists. Our theatre intensive (grades 4-11) takes students through the entire process of producing a play, from audition to rehearsals, set design to performance.

What to Look For in a Summer Camp or Program

After you have picked the camps or programs that work best with your schedule and would be most interesting to your child, get more information about them. Call each camp and ask a lot of questions.

Some questions to ask program and camp staff:

- Is the camp or program accredited or licensed? If so, by whom? If not, why not?
- What training does camp staff receive on safety, supervision, counseling, problem solving, and other issues unique to working with young children?
- Does the price include everything, or are there extra charges for transportation, horseback riding, food service, overnights, registration, clothing, etc.?
- If transportation is provided, what are the specifics?
- If before and after camp activities are offered, who is with the children and what will they be doing?
- Are there competitive activities (such as team sports)? Is your child comfortable with the level of competition?
- How can parents stay in touch with their children during camp? Are phone calls or e-mail allowed?
- How does the camp meet campers' special dietary or physical needs?
- Is there an open house before camp starts so parents can tour the camp and meet the director?
- Are there visiting days?

BREAKTHROUGH GREATER BOSTON (BTGB)

MIDDLE SCHOOL SUMMER PROGRAM

The summer program is the highlight of a student's Breakthrough experience. Young, smart, energetic teachers introduce middle school students to new and exciting topics in literature, math, social studies, science, and writing. With a student-to-staff ratio of 3:1, Breakthrough Greater Boston classes are small and allow students to receive individualized attention. Summer teachers create engaging, student-centered classes that culminate in a hands-on final project. All students receive up to two hours of homework each week night and receive a great deal of support from their teachers to complete all assignments. Each day's schedule includes time for mentoring, homework help, recess, and community building.

HIGH SCHOOL SUMMER PROGRAM

Throughout the course of the year, Breakthrough staff members work with each current Breakthrough student to identify and apply for enrichment and internship opportunities for the summer. In addition, BTGB offers its own summer opportunities in the form of the Leadership Academy for rising 9th grade students and the Palante (Spanish for "onward") Internship Program for rising 10th-12th grade students.

Leadership Academy is a unique summer program that invites a select group of rising 9th grade Breakthrough students to return for the summer to strengthen the academic and leadership skills they will need to make a smooth transition to high school in the fall.

ELIOT SCHOOL OF FINE & APPLIED ARTS

CREATIVE ARTS SUMMER

The Eliot School of Fine & Applied Arts seeks to inspire lifelong learning in craftsmanship and creativity for all. Our visual arts and woodworking programs recognize the power of art to help all students maximize their academic potential, particularly those who are visual and/or tactile learners. Teachers design projects that provide ample opportunity to make intentional connections from visual arts to literacy development and woodworking to STEM principles and goals. Our programs are accessible to a wide range of learners including students with disabilities, English language learners, and students who have experienced trauma in their lives. We design our curriculum to reflect the cultural diversity of BPS students and to effectively engage students who may have had little background in the arts. We help our students use art as a tool to express their voice around social justice issues that speak to them and affect their lives.

Plan ahead for college.

Summer is a great time to learn about careers and colleges, and Boston has great (and air conditioned) places to do just that: ASA College Planning Centers at the Boston Public Library in Copley Square and in many neighborhoods. (ASA stands for American Student Assistance.) They have everything you need to make career and college decisions: information on thousands of colleges, universities, and technical/vocational programs; counseling on choosing a school and paying for it; help completing admission and financial aid applications; computerized college, career and scholarship search systems; and much more. Help is available in several languages. And it's all free. Check their website for tons of resources.

If you go to the Boston Public Schools, you are eligible for financial aid and many scholarships. Every BPS high school has a uAspire advisor who can help you find funding for college. Contact uAspire at 617-778-7195 or visit their website:

CITY YEAR

City Year is a FULL TIME program whose mission is to help students reach their full potential and significantly increase the nation's high school graduation rate. This is an opportunity for 17- to 24-year-olds to work for 11 months with students in an elementary, middle, or high school in Boston (or in 25 other cities in the US) by being a tutor, mentor, and role model. The day of a City Year AmeriCorps member is spent tutoring students who are at risk of dropping out of high school, running after school programs, and supporting teachers in the classroom.

If you are accepted, you will be paid a biweekly stipend, receive basic health insurance, receive an MBTA pass, and earn a $5,815 Segal Education Award when you complete the program. City Year alumni are also eligible for scholarships of 25%-100% of tuition for at over 190 participating colleges and universities.

City Year strongly encourages you to talk to a recruiter before you apply.

How to get an Employment Permit.

Are you planning to get a job this summer? Keep in mind that you must have an Employment Permit, sometimes called "working papers." The first step is to find an employer who is willing to hire you. Next....

IF YOU ARE 14 OR 15:

1. Get a white Promise of Employment Card from your guidance counselor/student support coordinator or your school's main office.
2. Take this card to your doctor's office or health center and have a doctor or nurse sign and date it. If you have not had a physical within the last year, make an appointment to have one. If you have had a physical in your school within the last year, your school nurse can sign and date the card.
3. Take this card to the prospective employer to fill out, sign, and date.
4. Take your Promise of Employment Card back to your guidance counselor/student support coordinator or main office and ask for an Employment Permit. It is also white, but larger than the Promise of Employment Card.
5. Fill out the Employment Permit and have your parent or guardian sign it on the back.
6. Once your parent or guardian has signed it, bring the completed Employment Permit to your employer.

IF YOU ARE 16 OR 17:

1. Pick up a yellow Educational Certificate from your guidance counselor. Have him or her fill it out and sign it.
2. Return the Educational Certificate to your employer.

DURING SCHOOL VACATIONS AND THE SUMMER:

You can also get a Promise of Employment Card or Educational Certificate from the Boston Public Schools Office of Guidance Services. It is located in the Boston Latin Academy building, 443 Warren Street, Suite 3 (corner of Warren and Townsend St.), Dorchester, telephone 617-635-8030. Office hours are Monday through Friday, 8:30am to 4pm. You must come in person and bring two forms of identification, such as a birth certificate, baptismal record, student ID, driver's license, social security card, health insurance card, or passport. Also bring the name and address of your employer.

Get a PIC summer job.

Are you looking for a summer job? If you go to the Boston Public Schools, you're lucky. The Boston Private Industry Council (PIC) has been finding great summer, after-school, and after-graduation jobs for BPS high school students for over 20 years.

If you are a high school student in good standing, see the PIC career specialist at your school to learn about jobs, internships, resume writing, and much more. The PIC career specialist will ask you to complete an application and will help you land a good summer job. PIC career specialists can also help with your college and career search, or connect you with non-BPS alternative programs.

How can you reach your PIC career specialist?

Visit the PIC website: bostonpic.org/youth/bps and follow the link to contact the career specialist for your high school.

What if you don't have a PIC counselor?

The Department of Youth Engagement & Employment offers an array of workshops and opportunities for young people to help them develop the skills necessary for obtaining and maintaining jobs and achieving career goals.
