Questions to ask when visiting a high school:

- What are the school's student achievement data, such as MCAS results, promotion and graduation rates, and percent of graduates that go on to college?
- Does the school have a special admission process and if so, what is it?
- What is the school's curriculum? Does the school have a special theme or focus?
- What Advanced Placement, Honors or Dual Enrollment classes does the school offer?
- What services and programs are available for students who are not English proficient?
- What services and programs are available for students who have special needs?
- What supports are available for students who need extra academic help or counseling?
- What are the opportunities for parent involvement?
- What types of partnerships does the school have with the community?
- What are the school's hours?
- Does the school have athletic programs, clubs, or after-school activities?
- How does the school handle disciplinary issues?
- How diverse is the student population? Faculty and staff?
